Version 1.1

Effective Date: July 22, 2026

1. Scope and Contract Priority

These Terms of Service ("Terms") govern use of the public website operated by VedFlow LLC ("VedFlow," "we," "us," or "our"). Access to and use of the VedFlow platform by customers and their authorized users is governed by an executed agreement with VedFlow. These Terms do not modify that agreement, and the order of priority among executed agreements is determined by those agreements.

2. Website Use and Intellectual Property

You may use the VedFlow website only for lawful purposes. You may not interfere with the website, bypass its security controls, introduce malicious code, attempt unauthorized access, or use it to infringe another person's rights.

The website and its content, branding, and underlying technology are owned by VedFlow LLC or its licensors and may not be copied, modified, distributed, or commercially exploited except as permitted by law or with VedFlow's written permission.

3. Privacy

Personal information submitted through the VedFlow website is handled as described in the VedFlow Privacy Policy.

4. Website Disclaimer and Limitation of Liability

The VedFlow website and its informational content are provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis. To the fullest extent permitted by law, VedFlow disclaims warranties relating to the public website and will not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, exemplary, or punitive damages arising solely from its use. This section does not modify any executed agreement or limit liability that cannot lawfully be limited.

5. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey, without regard to its conflict-of-law principles, except to the extent applicable law requires otherwise.

6. Changes to These Terms

VedFlow may update these Terms by posting a revised version with a new effective date. Changes apply to use of the public website on or after that date and do not modify any executed agreement.
